20 § 115.01 DEFINITIONS.

21 For the purpose of this subchapter, the following definitions shall apply unless the 22 context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning:

23 PERSON. Any individual, firm, corporation or partnership.

24 VALUABLE METAL. Copper, lead, titanium, stainless steel, copper alloy or 25 brass, formed as a bar, cable, rod, tubing, wire, wire scrap, clamp, connector, 26 bushing or bearing or other appurtenances utilized or that can be utilized by 27 persons, firms, corporations or municipal corporations engaged in either the 28 generation, transmission or distribution of electric energy, in telephone, telegraph or 29 other communications, or by railroads; or any copper, copper alloy or brass, or 30

1 aluminum materials utilized for the purpose of plumbing, storm doors and windows,
2 siding, or gutters of building structures or automotive parts.

3 VALUABLE METAL DEALER. Any person engaged in the business of 4 purchasing and reselling valuable metal either at a permanently established place of 5 business or in connection with a business of an itinerant nature, including junk
6 shops, junkyards, junk stores, auto wreckers, scrap metal dealers or processors,
7 salvage yards, collectors of or dealers in junk and junk cars or trucks, or the seller
8 of any valuable metals originating from a building structure.

9 § 115.02 LICENSE REQUIRED.

10 No person shall engage in the business of a valuable metal dealer in the city
11 without complying with this subchapter and obtaining a license therefor.

12 § 115.03 APPLICATION FOR LICENSE.

13 Application for such license shall be filed with the Fort Wayne Police Department.
14 The application shall be on forms furnished by the Chief of Police or his/her
15 agent and shall contain the following information:

- 16 (A) Name and address of the applicant;
- 17 (B) The street address of the building in which that person intends 18 to carry out the business of a valuable metal dealer;
- 19 (C) The business' telephone number.

20 § 115.04 INVESTIGATION OF APPLICANT.

21 Upon receipt of each application, the Fort Wayne Police Department shall 22 conduct a background investigation into the business and moral character of the 23 applicant. If upon investigation, the applicant's character is found to be 24 unsatisfactory, no license shall be issued.

25 § 115.05 LICENSE FEE; ISSUANCE.

26 Every applicant for a valuable metal dealer's license shall pay a non-refundable
27 annual license fee of $10. The license shall expire on December 31 of the year in 28 which the license shall be issued. No reduction shall be made for any part of the 29 year elapsed at the time of making such application for such license.

30 § 115.06 SEPARATE LICENSES FOR EACH ESTABLISHMENT; CHANGE

OF LOCATION.

A separate license shall be obtained for each location at which a person conducts the business of a valuable metal dealer. If the holder of a license of a valuable metal dealership wishes to change the location of the operation of that person's business, that person shall make written notification for a transfer of location to the Fort Wayne Police Department, which notification shall contain the new business address and business telephone number of the person.

§ 115.07 REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION; HEARING.

- (A) Any license issued under this subchapter may be revoked or suspended by the Chief of Police or his/her agent by reason of a violation of any of the provisions of this subchapter.
- (B) When a hearing is set by the Chief of Police or his/her agent in a revocation or suspension procedure, the licensee shall receive not less than 20 days written notice, which notice shall contain charges made, as well as the time and place when the hearing will be held.
- (C) At a hearing conducted pursuant to this subchapter, the licensee shall have the right to be represented by counsel, to present witnesses, to testify and cross-examine any other witnesses and to subpoena witnesses. Proceedings shall be conducted under oath.
- (D) The Chief of Police or his/her agent shall preside at the hearing and shall make the final determination.
- (E) If any decision adverse to the licensee is made by the Chief of Police or his/her agent after a hearing as provided above, the Chief of Police or his/her agent shall provide the licensee with a written reason for such decision, as well as a notice of the licensee's right to appeal to the courts of the state.

§ 115.08 RECORDS OF PURCHASES.

Except as provided in § 115.12, every person licensed as a valuable metal dealer shall keep and preserve data on or through an electronic or computer data system

1 information which shall be transmitted on a daily basis for the preceding 24-hour
2 period of operation, via electronic forms of transmission, to the Fort Wayne Police
3 Department using the Records Management System being used by the Fort Wayne
4 Police Department to record the following information:

- 5 (A) The date and time of each purchase;
- 6 (B) An accurate account and description of the valuable metal purchased,
7 including the weight and whether it consists of bar, cable, rod, tubing, wire,
8 wire scrap, clamp, connector or other appurtenances or some combination
9 thereof; or the type of building material purchased;
- 10 (C) The price paid for the valuable metal;
- 11 (D) The dealer shall further require the seller be properly identified with one 12 verifiable piece of current identification that shows name, address, sex,
13 race and date of birth, which shall be government issued photographic 14 identification.
- 15 (E) All information required by the Fort Wayne Police Department to be 16 preserved on electronic or computer data system shall be open at all times
17 during the business hours to the inspection of the Chief of Police or his/her
18 agent to examine such records. Such electronic information shall be 19 retained on the business premises of the valuable metal dealer for a period
20 of one year from date of purchase.

21 § 115.09 CHIEF OF POLICE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE LIST OF STOLEN
22 GOODS.

23 The Chief of Police or his/her agent shall, at their discretion, provide a list ("hot 24 sheet") of stolen goods containing valuable metals, to all valuable metal dealers.

25 § 115.10 BUYING VALUABLE METALS.

26 A precious metal dealer may not purchase precious metal:

§ 115.11 RETENTION BEFORE SALE OR DISPOSITION.

All goods or articles containing valuable metal purchased or received by any proprietor, manager or employee of any licensed valuable metal dealer, shall be retained at the place of business of the licensed dealer, by the proprietor, manager, or employee for a period of not less than 36 hours after its receipt before any such goods or articles may be disposed of or sold.

§ 115.12 EXCEPTIONS.

This subchapter does not apply to purchases from persons, firms or corporations regularly engaged in the business of manufacturing valuable metals, the business of selling valuable metals at retail or wholesale, to the purchase of one dealer from another or the purchase from persons, firms or corporations engaged in either the generation, transmission or distribution of electric energy or in telephone, telegraph and other communications.

PRECIOUS METALS AND STONES

§ 115.25 DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this subchapter, the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning:

PERSON. Any individual, firm, corporation or partnership.

PRECIOUS METALS or STONES. Any items combining precious metals, including but not limited to silver, gold and platinum; or containing gems including, but not limited to, diamonds, rubies or emeralds.

PRECIOUS METALS or STONES DEALER. Any person engaged in the business of purchasing and reselling valuable items containing precious metals or stones, either at a permanently established place of business or in connection with a business of an itinerant nature, including junk shops, junk stores, antique dealers, secondhand stores or flea markets.

§ 115.26 LICENSE REQUIRED.

(A) No person shall engage in the business of precious metals or stones dealer in the city without complying with this subchapter and obtaining a license therefor.

1 (B) In the event several precious metals or stones dealers are located at a
2 coin or antique show which is ten days or fewer of duration, only the 3 organizer/ manager of the coin or antique show shall be required to 4 purchase a license. However, if the antique show or coin show has 5 duration in excess of ten days, each precious stones or metals dealer at the 6 show shall be required to purchase a separate license.

7 § 115.27 APPLICATION FOR LICENSE.

8 Application for such license shall be filed with the Chief of Police or his/her agent.
9 The application shall be on forms furnished by the Chief of Police or his/her
10 agent and shall contain the following information:

11 (A) Name and address of the applicant;

12 (B) The street address of the building in which that person intends to carry out
13 the business of a precious metals or stones dealer;

14 (C) The business's telephone number.

15 § 115.28 INVESTIGATION OF APPLICANT.

16 Upon receipt of each application, the Fort Wayne Police Department shall conduct a 17 background investigation into the business and moral character of the applicant. If 18 upon investigation, the applicant's character is found to be unsatisfactory, no license
19 shall be issued.

20 § 115.29 LICENSE FEE; ISSUANCE.

21 Every applicant for a precious metals or stones dealer's license shall pay a non-
22 refundable annual license fee in the sum of $10. The license shall expire on 23 December 31 of the year in which the license shall be issued. No reduction shall be 24 made for any part of the year elapsed at the time of making such application for such 25 license.

26 § 115.30 SEPARATE LICENSE FOR EACH ESTABLISHMENT; CHANGE OF 27 LOCATION.

28 A separate license shall be obtained for each location at which a person conducts the 29 business of a precious metals or stones dealer. In the case of a flea market only one 30 license need be obtained for the whole flea market, and not for each participant at

1 such flea market. If the holder of a license of a precious metals or stones dealership
2 wishes to change the location of the operation of that person's business, that person
3 shall make written notification for a transfer of location to the Chief of Police or 4 his/her agent, which notification shall contain the new business's address and business
5 telephone number of the person.

6 § 115.31 REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION; HEARING.

7 (A) Any license issued under this subchapter may be revoked or suspended by 8 the Chief of Police or his/her agent by reason of a violation of any of the 9 provisions of this subchapter.

10 (B) When a hearing is set by the Chief of Police or his/her agent in a revocation
11 or suspension procedure, the licensee shall receive not less than 20 days
12 written notice, which notice shall contain charges made, as well as the time
13 and place when the hearing will be held.

14 (C) At a hearing conducted pursuant to this subchapter, the licensee shall have 15 the right to be represented by counsel, to present witnesses, to testify and 16 cross-examine any other witnesses and to subpoena witnesses. Proceedings
17 shall be conducted under oath.

18 (D) The Chief of Police or his/her agent shall preside at the hearing and shall 19 make the final determination.

20 (E) If any decision adverse to the licensee is made by the Chief of Police or 21 his/her agent after a hearing as provided above, the Chief of Police or his/her 22 agent shall provide the licensee with a written reason for such decision, as 23 well as a notice of the licensee's right to appeal to the courts of the state.

24 § 115.32 RECORDS OF PURCHASES.

25 Except as provided in § 115.36, every person licensed as a precious metals or stones
26 dealer shall keep and preserve data on or through an electronic or computer data
27 system information which shall be transmitted on a daily basis for the preceding 24-
28 hour period of operation, via electronic forms of transmission, to the Fort Wayne
29 Police Department using the Records Management System being used by the Fort 30 Wayne Police Department to record the following information for each purchase of precious metals and stones:

- (A) The date and time of each purchase;
- (B) An accurate account and description of the precious metals or stones purchased including the weight and type of item purchased;
- (C) The price paid for the item containing precious metals or stones;
- (D) The dealers shall further require the seller be properly identified with one verifiable current government issued photographic identification. The dealer shall make a legible photographic copy of such identification and shall retain such photographic copy on the dealer's business premises for a period of one year from the date of purchase and shall be available to the Fort Wayne Police Department upon request.
- (E) All information required by the Fort Wayne Police Department to be preserved on electronic or computer data system, shall be open at all times during the business hours to the inspection of the Chief of Police or his/her agent to examine such records. Such electronic information shall be retained on the business premises for the precious metals or stones dealer for a period of one year from the date of purchase.
- (F) In addition to obtaining, recording and preserving the information described in divisions (A) through (D), the dealer shall photograph the precious metals or stones purchased which photograph shall be of clear resolution and preserved on the business premises of dealer for a period of one year from the date of purchase and shall be made available to the Chief of Police or his/her agent authorized to receive such picture.

§ 115.33 CHIEF OF POLICE REQUIRED TO PROVIDE LIST OF STOLEN GOODS.

The Chief of Police or his/her agent shall, at their discretion, provide a list ("hot sheet") of stolen goods containing precious metals or stones, to all precious metal or stone dealers.

§ 115.34 BUYING PRECIOUS METALS OR STONES.

A precious metals or stones dealer may not purchase precious metals or stones:

(A) from an individual less than 18 years of age; or

(B) that the precious metals or stones dealer believes or should have reason to believe is stolen property acquired as a result of a crime.
