Memo:

11/10/19 AC20/Miller

On arrival to the area I MC with FWPDP. The officer advised the dog was not a pit bull, but a large blk/brn Rottweiler. The dog had charged the officer twice while he was attempting to confine it and backed a passerby, who had been walking on the bike path next to Hanna, up to the police cruiser that was parked on the service road for the electrical station located on S. Hanna near Kimberton. The officer stated it did not have physical contact with him or the passerby. The passerby had cleared the area, and the dog cut between houses headed towards Downingtown Dr. I thanked him for the 83 and began to patrol Downingtown Dr. I located the dog in the driveway of 6321 Downingtown. I began to make nice with the dog, tossing treats to it. The dog eventually started to take the treats and move closer to me. Before I was able to secure the dog an adult male exited the house at 6321 and called to the dog. The dog ignored him and came towards me, still in the road, and sniffed me before turning and heading to the man. The dog was secured inside the house and I was able to MC with the dog owner, Madrid Antwoinette. Antwoinette stated she put the dog out in the front yard to go potty and forgot about her before getting in the shower. Antwoinette advised the dog, AKELA 12 yr. old SF Rottweiler, had never done anything like this before and Antwoinette apologized to the FWPDP officer for the dogs behavior. I educated Antwoinette on the definition of attack and the consequences of a dog attacking persons. Antwoinette was understanding and advised it would not happen again. I explained shew would be receiving a TO PAY for public nuisance dog attack and she stated she understood. Antwoinette did not have an IN DL, but provided her DL for Hawaii. AKELA was current on RV tag#90415 thru Anthony Animal Clinic and I gave a verbal warning to get the PR. I issued Antwoinette a to pay for 91.028(2) and she stated she understood her responsibilities before signing the cite. Antwoinette received a copy of the cite for her records and with no questions I cleared the scene.
