CITY OF FORT WAYNE

SHARON TUCKER, MAYOR

January 6, 2025

Dear City Council:

The individuals listed below are currently members of the Historic Preservation Commission. I would like to reappoint them for new three-year terms. Background information and qualifications of these Commissioners is provided for your review.

Beth Walker

Beth is the Vice-Chair of the Commission; she is the managing broker and owner of Fairfield Group Realtors, a Fort Wayne-based, second generation and full-service real estate firm. She served as president of both Upstate Alliance of Realtors (UPSTAR) and UPSTAR MLS and received the UPSTAR Realtor of the Year Award in 2020. Currently, Beth is a state-appointed ambassador for ethical real estate practices as a commissioner on the Indiana Real Estate Commission; chair of the UPSTAR Diversity Committee; and advisor on the UPSTAR Government Affairs Committee. She is also a property owner within the West Central Historic District.

Tony Borton

Tony is a resident and property owner in the Williams Woodland Park Historic District. He has a diverse background, with design, creative and educational companies, he also has experience in digital media and film. Today he primarily restores, maintains, and manages historic homes and apartments. Tony is an active member (and frequent officer) of the Williams Woodland Park Neighborhood Association.

Thank you for your consideration. Please let me know if there is anything else you need to facilitate the process for these Commission appointments.

Sincerely,

Sharon Tucker
Mayor
